Summary and outlook

- Good growth in 2013; EBITA and AEPS up 16%
- Strategy remains sound and positions us well for the longer term
- $276m on strategic acquisitions with further M&A anticipated
- GTS:Siemens JV to address underperformance
- Overall outlook for 2014 remains unchanged:
 - Wood Group Engineering - continue to anticipate reduced EBITA in 2014
 - growth in Subsea & Pipelines but reduction in Upstream
 - good long term market but slower pace of significant offshore awards
 - Wood Group PSN – positioned to deliver good growth in 2014 led by US shale
 - strength in US shale and North Sea
 - gas turbine related activities expected to be broadly flat
 - Overall, mix of opex and capex activities and contribution of acquisitions expected to lead to growth

Footnotes

Footnotes

1. Total EBITA includes continuing and discontinued operations and represents total operating profit of $431.4m (2012: $374.3m) before exceptional income of $0.5m (2012: $0.7m) and the deduction of amortisation of $102.1m (2012: $85.5m) and is provided as it is a key unit of measurement used by the Group in the management of its business. Total operating profit for the year comprises operating profit from continuing operations of $365.6m (2012 $335.0m) and operating profit from discontinued operations of $65.8m (2012: $39.3m).

2. Adjusted diluted earnings per share is calculated by dividing earnings before exceptional items and amortisation, net of tax, by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the period, excluding shares held by the Group's employee ownership trusts and adjusted to assume conversion of all potentially dilutive ordinary shares.

3. Pro forma performance restates the 2012 results to include the results of acquisitions made in 2012 as if they had been acquired on 1 January 2012 and also to apply the average exchange rates used to translate the 2013 results. The 2013 results exclude the post-acquisition results of the Pyeroy, Elkhorn and Intetech acquisitions made during 2013.

4. Return of Capital Employed (ROCE) is Total EBITA divided by average capital employed.

5. Average net and average gross debt is based on the average of the net and gross debt balances respectively at the end of each month.

6. Headcount includes all personnel; staff and contractors at 31 December.
